

Company profile

Ningbo haifeng life-saving appliance manufacturing co.,ltd. is located in Ningbo Xiaogang Industrial Zone, with elegant environment and convenient transportation. The factory covers an area of more than 3,500 square meters and a construction area of more than 5,000 square meters. It has complete production and inspection equipment and produces life-saving rafts of 3,500 per year. Only around.

The company began to produce inflatable life rafts in 1987. It has established a perfect quality assurance system for many years and passed the quality management system certification of China Classification Society Quality Certification Company. The products are developed, produced and inspected in strict accordance with the latest international regulations such as SOLAS, LSA and MSC.81 (70) and the requirements of the Maritime Regulations of the Maritime Safety Administration of the People's Republic of China. There are 7 models of existing inflatable life raft products, 38 specifications. The products have passed the type approval of China Classification Society CCS, National Fishing Vessel Inspection Bureau ZY and EU Classification Society EC. In the domestic coastal areas, the company's products sales and service outlets, products are exported to Europe and the United States, Southeast Asia and the Middle East and other countries and regions. Excellent product quality, efficient trading methods, honest and trustworthy style, and thoughtful after-sales service have won praises from users at home and abroad.

Based on the principle of “honesty, quality first”, the company provides better and more satisfactory products to Chinese and foreign customers.